

Adv. Ido Rosenzweig - An international lawyer with over 10 years experience. Ido is the Director of International Organisations at the International Association of Jewish Lawyers and Jurists. He also serves as Director of Research (Terrorism, Belligerency & Cyber) at the Minerva Center for the Rule of Law under Extreme Conditions at the University of Haifa. Ido is a co-founder and the chairman of ALMA - Association for the Promotion of International Humanitarian Law. Prior to that Ido worked as a researcher in the field of Terrorism and Democracy at the Israel Democracy Institute and served as a legal adviser at the legal department of the Israeli Foreign Ministry.

Ido has extensive experience in public speaking before the general audiences, academics and practitioners, as well as coaching and training groups locally and abroad. Ido earned his LL.B from Tel-Aviv University and LL.M from both Tel-Aviv University (cum laude) and Northwestern University (with honors). Ido is currently working on his PhD in international law at the Hebrew University of Jerusalem.